JUDGE CARDWELL HEARS PETITION OF PAVERS

Supreme Court Justice Will Render Decision on Injunction Tuesday.

TAKES PAPERS TO HIS HOME

Argument Goes Over Ground Rehearsed Before Judge Crump. Oity Attorney Represents Administrative Board.

Judge Cardwell, of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, will announce Tuesday his decision on the application of C. Ridgeway Moore for an order re-straining the Administrative Board of the city of Richmond from awarding to the Central Construction and Supply Company the contract for smooth pav-

Supreme Court, Justice at the close of a hearing granted on the petition yesterday. Argument on the petition was made by Charles V. Meredith, assisted by Wyndham R. Meredith and J. C. Boyd, the latter a Baltimore lawyer, who represented the interests of the Atlantic Bitulithic Company, the unsuccessful bidder for the contract; City Attorney Henry R. Pollard, representing the Administrative Board and the City Engineer, and Archie W. Patterson, who appeared for the Central Con-son, who appeared for the Central Con-struction and Supply Company. The proceedings were largely identi-cal with the action taken when the application was originally made to Judge Beverly T. Crump, of the Law and Equity Court of Richmond. The same affidavits and other papers were sub-mitted to the court. It was argued by counsel for the successful bidder that the Administrative Board is duly authorized to award city contracts at its discretion and that the action in favor of the successful bidder had been reg-ularly and legally decided by the board, as represented by a majority vote.

Judge Cardwell told the interested parties that he would take the papers offered as exhibits home with him to Hanover County, examine them, and render his decision on Tuesday.

GOVERNOR REVOKES. WADDILL'S COMMISSION

Mrs. Waddill is Named on Board of Virginia Home' and Industrial School for Girls.

Samuel P. Waddill, of Henrico County, to whom a commission was issued when he was designated to serve as a member of the board of trustees of the Virginia Home and Industrial School Virginia Home and Industrial School for Girls, lost his commission yesterday. It was revoked.

Gover or Stuart's explanation for revoking the commission was: "I have found a better man." By direction of the Governir, a commission was made out in the name of Mrs. Samuel P. Waddill. And thereby hangs a tale. The appointee of Governor Stuart, in the first place, was Mrs. Waddill. Due.

the first place, was Mrs. Waddill. Due to a clerical error, the commission when drawn, carried the name of the Henrico County Circuit Court clerk, and it was issued to him. The mistake was immediately discovered, and the Governor was notified that his com-mission had fallen into other hands than those he intended should hold it. He forthwith revoked Sam Waddil's commission and issued a commission to Mrs. Waddill.

Leaves for San Francisco.

Captain John T. Lewis, of Clarkesville, who has been designated by the Virginia Commission to the Panama-Pacific Exposition to receive the Virginia building, Mount Vernon, from the contractor, left yesterday afternoon for San Francisco. Captain Lewis held a brief conference in the morning with Captain W. W. Baker, of Chesterfield, and Secretary Alexander Forward, other members of the commission who are in the city. He is intrusted with the transaction of all business affairs in connection with the Virginia exhibit that are to be looked after before the opening of the exposition. Captain Lewis will remain in San Francisco, probably two weeks or more before

Or Are Bothered With Falling Hair or Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when rettring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gope, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.
